

Eric McKeever, Baritone

Hello Friends!

I'm thrilled to share that I'm coming to town to appear with my "home" opera company when I appear in Verdi's "Rigoletto" with Opera Columbus. This thrilling opera has it all: love, danger, tragedy, and curses all wrapped up in a visceral score and a spectacular set.

Performances will be Friday, March 31 and Saturday, April 1 both at 7:30 pm at the gorgeous Ohio Theatre and will feature a world-class cast accompanied by the Columbus Symphony Orchestra.

I'll also be performing at the Historic St. Paul AME Church (where I grew up and first found my love for singing) on Saturday, April 8 at 5 pm in a concert entitled "Arias and Art Songs." The program will feature some of my favorite operatic repertoire as well as art songs composed by African American composers. The concert will feature some wonderful collaborative artists, is free and open to the public, and is part of St. Paul's 200th Anniversary Celebration.

Count Monterone (Rigoletto)

Opera Columbus

The Ohio Theatre (39 East State Street)

March 31, April 1, 2023

7:30 pm

TICKETS AND INFO

Solo Recital

St. Paul AME Church (639 East Long Street)

April 8, 2023

5:00 pm

FREE ADMISSION

I hope I'll see you at the opera and/or the concert!

Best,

Eric

www.ericmckeeverbaritone.com